NFL Logo Quiz — Answer Key

1. B Dallas Cowboys

The Dallas Cowboys are known as 'America's Team.' Their iconic blue star on a silver helmet is one of the most recognizable logos in professional sports.

2. B Indianapolis Colts

The Indianapolis Colts' logo is a blue horseshoe, a symbol they have used since their days as the Baltimore Colts.

3. C Pittsburgh Steelers

The Pittsburgh Steelers' logo features three hypocycloids (diamond shapes) from the Steelmark, originally the logo of the American Iron and Steel Institute. They are the only NFL team

4. B Kansas City Chiefs

The Kansas City Chiefs have used the arrowhead logo since 1963. Their red helmets with the white and gold arrowhead are among the most distinctive in the NFL.

5. C Miami Dolphins

The Miami Dolphins' logo has featured a dolphin since the team's founding in 1966. The current version shows a stylized dolphin in front of the sun.

6. B Los Angeles Chargers

The Los Angeles Chargers have used the lightning bolt as their primary symbol since their earliest years. Their powder blue and gold uniforms are fan favorites.

7. B Chicago Bears

The Chicago Bears use a wishbone 'C' as their primary helmet logo. The bear head appears on some merchandise but the 'C' is the classic helmet design.

8. C Philadelphia Eagles

The Philadelphia Eagles' logo is the only one in the NFL where the animal faces left. Every other animal or figure faces to the right.

9. C Jacksonville Jaguars

The Jacksonville Jaguars adopted teal as their signature color when the team was founded in 1995. Their leaping jaguar logo is one of the more modern designs in the NFL.

10. A Cleveland Browns

The Cleveland Browns are the only NFL team without a logo on their helmet. Their orange helmet itself has become their most recognizable symbol.

11. B Tampa Bay Buccaneers

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers' logo features a red flag with a skull and crossed swords, fitting their pirate theme. The Raiders use a different pirate-inspired design with a shield.

12. A Minnesota Vikings

The Minnesota Vikings' purple helmets feature curved Viking horns on each side, reflecting the team's Norse-themed identity.

13. C Baltimore Ravens

The Baltimore Ravens' logo features a raven with wings spread and the letter 'B' incorporated into the design. The team is named after Edgar Allan Poe's famous poem.

14. B Las Vegas Raiders

The Las Vegas Raiders (formerly Oakland and Los Angeles) use a silver and black color scheme with their iconic pirate-in-a-football-helmet shield logo.

15. A New Orleans Saints

The New Orleans Saints use the gold fleur-de-lis, a symbol of French heritage and the city of New Orleans. It has been the team's logo since their founding in 1967.

16. B Green Bay Packers

The Green Bay Packers' 'G' logo on their green and gold helmet is one of the most iconic symbols in NFL history. The 'G' stands for 'Greatness' according to a popular myth, but it simply stands for

17. C Los Angeles Rams

The Los Angeles Rams have featured curling ram horns on their helmets since the 1940s. They were the first NFL team to put a design on their helmets.

18. C Buffalo Bills

The Buffalo Bills' logo features a red charging buffalo (bison) with a red stripe. The team is named after Buffalo Bill Cody.

19. C Atlanta Falcons

The Atlanta Falcons' current logo cleverly incorporates the letter 'F' into the shape of a falcon. The team was named through a fan contest in 1965.

20. C Cincinnati Bengals

The Cincinnati Bengals' helmets feature orange and black tiger stripes running from front to back. They are the only NFL team whose helmet IS the logo rather than displaying a separate logo
